

I am thouroughly disgusted with the results of media consolidation and politia pandering disguised as "news." Sinclair and Fox "News" immediately come to mind.
It's time for Congress and the FCC to start doing their jobs protecting the public air waves.